

But Jesus is passing by;
he is passing by, and he halts: the Gospel tells us that "he stopped" (Mark 10:49).

Our hearts race, because we realise that the Light is gazing upon us, that kindly Light which invites us to come out of our dark blindness.
Jesus' closeness to us makes us see that when we are far from him there is something important missing from our lives. His presence makes us feel in need of salvation, and this begins the healing of our heart.

Then, when our desire to be healed becomes more courageous, it leads to prayer, to crying out fervently and persistently for help, as did Bartimaeus: "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" (Mark 10:47).
